

FNCE® 2023 | Speaker Guide

Primary Responsibilities

- Collaborate with your Program Planner to determine session structure and content flow.
- Prepare your session content and handouts and provide to your Program Planner.
- Present live at FNCE®, including participation in audience Q&A at the end of the session.

Qualifications/Assessment Criteria

Professional expertise. Include on your biography/curriculum vitae your work experience, recent publications, and presentations.

Speaking experience. As the premier educational event of the year for dietetics professionals, FNCE® showcases lively and engaging speakers who have presented at a state, regional or national level, and/or demonstrate solid lecturing experience in their practice area. Links to video clips of past speaking engagements are strongly encouraged.

Academy membership. All sessions including at least two Speakers must include at least one active member of the Academy. Additionally, at least one speaker or the moderator must be an RDN/NDTR who can speak to practice applications. All selected Speakers who are member eligible must activate Academy membership by June 1, 2023. (Review our eligibility requirements.)

Diversity and inclusion. The Academy and the Committee for Lifelong Learning are committed to featuring diverse representation among speakers and presentation topics.

Additional Details

New Speakers. To ensure fresh voices and perspectives, the Academy and Committee for Lifelong Learning (CLL) strongly recommend including “new experts” who have not presented at FNCE® before, as well as Speakers who have not presented at FNCE® for at least two years.

Speaker modification. The Academy may recommend, modify or require alternative Speaker(s) prior to any session acceptance.

Get Social!

Stand out from other submissions and demonstrate real-world engagement by including your professional social media contact information (Instagram, LinkedIn, Facebook, or Twitter).

